APRIL 2016

VOLUME 76-NO. 68

REFLECTIONS: A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PASTOR

Easter is now upon us and with it the wonderful mystery of the force of life that sprouts in spring-time, expressing in all its magnificent forms, shapes, colors, manifestations, and the undeniable presence of sacredness and reverence. But it also reminds us that life never gives up; it is always seeking to expand and ready to accept the challenge of death by being transformed again into beautiful life. In this, we Christians have a breathtaking image, a powerful metaphor of what the resurrection experience meant for the first Christian communities, and for those who have continued to build on that experience of the resurrected Christ over the centuries—which now includes us at Hempstead.

I witnessed some sparks of resurrection life when we got together during the Lenten suppers. I heard laughs and saw smiles; I also noticed faces expressing thanksgiving for the meals and fellowship. Some of us indulged not just with desserts but also with companionship built on story sharing and listening. I learned from those with whom I had the opportunity to chat that life is a constant struggle for all of us. Recognizing how much we have received as an expression of gratitude gives us the strength to move on and be faithful to the journey of helping to build God's kingdom. Yes! Indeed! Those Wednesdays were long days; full days of working and driving and commuting, but also days promising a deeper faith built on loving and caring relationships in Christ.

I perceived something similar at the Easter Egg Hunt. It was not just about giving food or toys or gifts to children but about creating a sacred and recreational space for so many alienated families in our community: mothers and fathers who also have to overcome so many obstacles just to make it in life. I was glad to see the caring effort of those who organized the event, cooked, served, cleaned, supervised, painted children's faces, amused them with their customs, took pictures, and did so many other things, all of them inspired by divine love and by the belief that each human being deserves respect because each one of us is a reflection of God's image. Indeed, it demanded of lot of work and time but our greatest reward was to witness so many children and parents coming all together and having good quality time together as a family, right before our own eyes.

I cannot end these thoughts without expressing my gratitude for the experiences of the International Women's Day celebration, our Hempstead Fellowship Brunch, and Easter Sunday. When our celebrations and ministry help us to move to a higher level of consciousness of what the promise of abundant life means, our life purpose becomes clearer and our faith journey meaningful. Indeed, this puts us in the path of spiritual growth.

I hope we can continue to build on these experiences that I think bring us closer as friends, as brothers and sister in Christ, and as a community of believers working collectively to expand life wherever we are present—and certainly closer to the God of our friend, brother, and companion, Jesus Christ. Happy Easter!

Grace and Peace,
Rev. Rafael Garcia

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2016

International Women's Day is a global effort that celebrates the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women around the world.

In honor of the ladies in our congregation, Mr. Anthony Zemkus, guest speaker from the Safe Center LI, delivered a well-received sermon during the March 6th Worship Service.

2016 Church World Service Health Kit Campaign

The Church World Service campaign has begun and will extend through Sunday, April 17, 2016. Health kits provide the basic necessities in responding to the natural disasters and emergency situations here in the U.S. and around the world. A table and basket will be placed in the gym on Sundays for the deposit of your items and contributions. Items to be included are:

- One hand towel • One washcloth
- One comb • One nail clipper • One bath size bar of soap
- One toothbrush • Ten Band-aids

Seal all items in a one-gallon plastic bag with a zipper closure. Processing/shipping is $2.00. If you prefer, a donation of $20.00 will allow CWS to provide a health kit. Packing day is on Monday, April 18, 2016. We need volunteers to put the kits together.

Thank you for your continued support!

Did You Know?

Talking Books: Launched in 1933 and sponsored by the Library of Congress, the National Library Service (NLS) for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) is a national network of cooperating libraries that distribute recorded books to people with vision loss.

These books are loaned and mailed free of charge, and are played on machines provided by the NLS program. The books come in special containers that are mailed back free of charge. Talking Books can also be downloaded from the Braille and Audio Reading Download website (BARD) for play on the Digital Talking Book Player via a USB thumb drive or on portable players compatible with the NLS format. To apply for this service, call (800) 424-8567, go to the NLS website, or visit your local library.

UMW ANNUAL BRUNCH-A MEMORABLE EVENT!

The UMW Annual Brunch was held on Saturday, March 14th. More than 50 people from the congregation and other churches attended this event. Guests enjoyed a lovely meal, prepared by members of the UMW.

After the meal, Jackie Morgan, president of the UMW at UMC of Hempstead, introduced guest speaker, Victoria Roberts, MSW, CASAC-T, who gave an informative and inspirational presentation that included her own trials and eventual triumph over addiction.

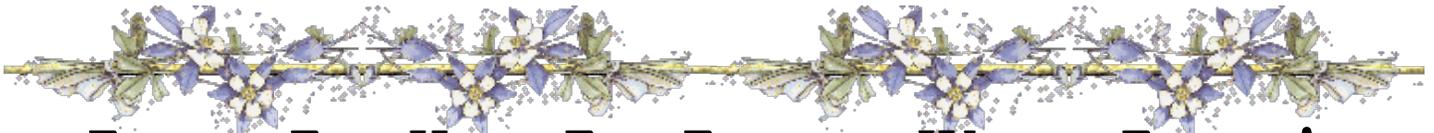

Ms. Roberts also spoke about how and where people in crisis can get help from various organizations, including the Women's Opportunity Rehabilitation Center (WORC).

EASTER EGG HUNT-FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY!

I am so happy to report that our 9th Annual Easter Egg Hunt, held on Saturday, March 19th was a big success!! This success is all due to the many wonderful members of our church family who volunteered their time and efforts into the event. You are all simply awesome. So I am sending a great big "THANK YOU" to all of you for being so wonderful and giving.

Special thanks go to the following angels for donating candy, donating money, stuffing eggs, cooking and serving pancakes and bacon, setting up and breaking down, monitoring kids, making announcements, helping at the raffle drawing, face painting, crafting, bunny hop race, and photography:

Wayne Redman, Patrick Thomson, Margaret Foo, Bentley and Eileen Bailey, Elvia Reynolds, Bibi Boucicaut, Kevin Gray, Hoan and William Cates, Shirley Brown, Claude Gooding, Chrystelle Gooding, and her friends, Evan and Seabrook, Juliet Martin (and friend), Zoe Gomes, Nalani Mason, Wendy Persaud-Tyler, Petal Scantlebury, Amanda and her friend Jordan Tullock, Stevie and James Scantlebury, Jon Lee, Grace Brammer, Karen Bonnet, Malcolm Hall, Jadea Fields, Brandy Watson, Jackie Morgan, Sheila Smith, Joe Angus, Aldith Swaby, Shirley Brown, Charlene Pierre-Louis, Diane Clarke, Cathy Bahr, the McCullers, Helen Clarke, Gem Lilly, Janice LaLumia, Dani Dwyer, Elvia Reynolds, Winsome Green, Liz Johnson.

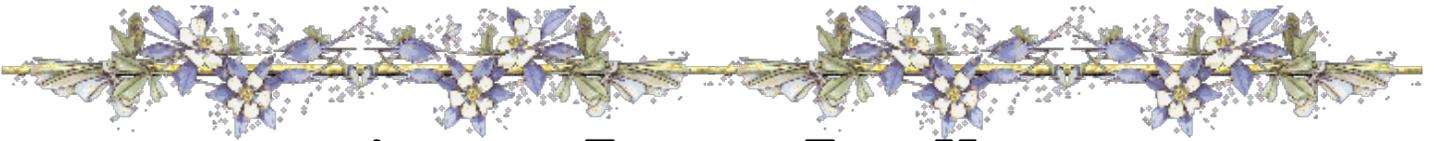

I would be remiss if I did not give a big thank you to the members of the Evangelism Committee: Royston Bailey – the best Easter Bunny in the land, (lol), Janice Wellington, always there whenever I need her, Kathy Aikens, committee secretary extraordinaire, Marilyn Aitcheson, ever helpful, and Marcia King, treasurer, stretching a dollar to bursting. We make a great team, thanks so much!

Last, but not least by any means, it meant so much to have Pastor Garcia there for the entire event. There is just such a special feeling when you not only have the moral support of the pastor, but to have him there in person is awesome. Kevin Gray, you're the best Bro!

As we close the door on this our 2016 event, I am grateful for my church family. I look forward to continuing to work with you all for the growth and strengthening of our church. God bless!

Much love and blessings,
Pearl Miles-Lee

Easter Associates

With what do we associate Easter?
Is it the 'EASTER BUNNY' sometimes standing straight and tall?

The 'INSPIRATION' it gives to children whether they are big or small

Is it the 'EASTER EGG'? - Milk chocolate so sweet
The pretty 'CLOTHES' in which we adorn ourselves
Or the 'EASTER DAY' itself that represent special treats

A rewarding 'FANFARE of MUSIC' -
Given to this special time and 'SERVICE'
Which always speak of the 'RESURRECTION' --
Of our 'LORD and SAVIOR'... JESUS
With Him (Jesus) we can associate 'VICTORY'
And 'TRIUMPH' over the 'GRAVE'

Yes! Jesus Christ is 'RISEN' - He brings 'SALVATION'
To the lost, the underprivileged and the brave

***** HAPPY EASTER! *****

April 2016 / Editor and Art Director: Karen Bonnet

The Earth is a gift from God, and it is our responsibility as good stewards, to respect and take care of his gifts. The Native Americans believed it was each one's responsibility to maintain and preserve the land for the next seven generations. Not a bad idea! Now it is our responsibility. Before you "trash" anything (be it plastic, paper, aluminum, or whatever), think about how your acts will affect future generations. Recycling is important! We are a GREEN church.

Some Sunday before or after service take a few minutes to read the front of the hymnal, page vii, "Directions for Singing" by John Wesley 1761. Remember to sing joyfully. And speaking of singing, perhaps the choir is the place for you. Rehearsals are on Thursday. Some of the benefits are: you never have to worry about what to wear; you have reserved seats; you can see who is in church without having to turn around; you will have the opportunity to use your voice to praise our Lord, and witness to His love and grace in song. Speak to Kevin or any choir member to learn more.

Lenten Folders: By now, each of us have received our Lenten folders. If you have not already done so, please send in your Lenten donation to the church. Thank you and many blessings to all.

Native American Sunday - 4/10/16: Through Native American Ministries Sunday, the UMC is able to equip and empower Native American pastors, congregations and seminary students to do what only they can do: authentically worship and serve Jesus. There are many Native Americans in our church community, including, Cherokee, Shinnecock, Creek, and the Arapahoe tribes.

Pajamas Needed: The United Methodist Women are collecting pajamas during the month of April and requests the congregation to participate. The pajamas will be given to the Safe Center LI, where victims of domestic abuse go, sometimes leaving their homes with only the clothes on their backs. Pajamas, besides being used as sleepwear, can also be used as loungewear during the day. There will be a collection box in the narthex; please remember these women as you shop. All sizes needed.
